JoLinn Hoover

JoLinn has 40+ years training horses and coaching riders in multiple disciplines. Her multiple Championship awards include versatility ranch horse and stock horse events, mountain trail and cowboy challenges, Ranch Riding, and cutting. Along with her own clinics, she is a Cowboy Dressage™ Clinician, ASHA judge & clinician, and OHC Mountain Trail clinician & Judge. Her passion for developing confidence in riders and horses plagued with fear, performance anxiety, or plateaued skills is the backbone of her program.

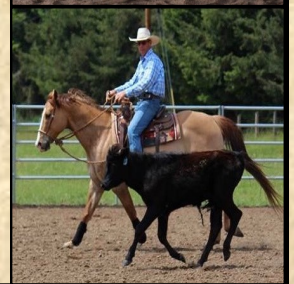

Special Guest Clinician:

Jason Nagel

Jason's arena competition experience includes Show Jumping, Roping, Cutting, and Cow Horse.

The past 20+ years he's focused on producing calm, responsive, and athletic horses through clear, consistent and peaceful communication styles.

He brings the same style into his teaching and coaching; you'll find his quiet, confident, and calming style a safe place to either start your Ranch Horse journey or to advance your current knowledge base.
